Missionary for Christ in the City

Fellow Parishioners, because of your generosity in prayers and donations, I have been able to dedicate the last two years of my life to knowing, loving, and serving the poor with Christ in the City. The fruits of it have been greater than expected and the Lord always delivers!

Therefore, I am overjoyed to announce that I have reached my fundraising goal for World Youth Day and I will be headed to Portugal in August to accompany other young Catholics in deepening our faith. I am more than grateful for my parish family at Saints Peter and Paul. May God bless each of you during this joyful Easter season!
