

School News:

This Week - Miranda Boles, School Secretary

Warmer weather is right around the corner and summer break will be here before we know it. With only 30 days of school left for this year, April and May are busy months for us here at SSPP School.

Kiya Babkirk and Emily Major will be presented with awards for the Arts in the Park contest at the Tamarack this Sunday. We have five students who will be attending the History Bee in Lewis Center, OH on April 12th. Those students are Samantha Dean, Hannah White, Christopher Smith, Ashleigh McCoy, and Matthew Mrozek. On April 15th we have five students who will be going to the state Social Studies Fair at the Charleston Civic Center. Those students are Gracie Littreal, Catherine Maxwell, Christopher Smith, Corey Littreal, and Michael Hower-ton. We are so proud of these students for doing a fantastic job at representing SSPP!

Saturday, April 23 is Conundrum at the Confluence. This is a scavenger hunt at the Confluence Resort for adults. . The annual golf tournament is May 7th at White Oaks. Race for Education is May 13th. If you'd like more information about these events, please call the school office at 304.465.5045.

We are still accepting students for the 2016/2017 school year so if you know of anyone who may be interested in SSPP, please spread the word.

God Bless!

A Family Perspective

Jesus invited the disciples to "Come and have breakfast." At this beach breakfast and the Last Supper Jesus teaches us meals should be more than eating. Family meals are opportunities to share prayer, listen to each other's stories, understand and support one another. - Bud Ozar

Third Sunday of Easter

"The risen Christ welcomes his own at the seashore."

Every Sunday of this Easter season gives us an opportunity to contemplate, along with our neophytes, the mystery of Christ's resurrection. Everywhere we turn in today's readings we find signs of God's abundant life and forgiveness. The early church proclaims the Good News. The apostles catch a large number of fish. Peter is forgiven. Let us celebrate this day by recalling signs of Resurrection life in our world and in our own lives today.

Easter Season Flowers:

Please consider donating toward the Easter Flowers in memory of a loved one. Flowers are needed from Easter through Pentecost.

"From the naïve enthusiasm of initial acceptance, passing through the sorrowful experience of denial and the weeping of conversion, Peter succeeded in entrusting himself to Jesus who adapted himself to (Peter's) poor capacity of love. And in this way he shows, notwithstanding all our weakness. We know that Jesus adapts himself to this weakness of ours."
—Pope Benedict XVI, General Audience May 24, 2006.
