Reflections on ALL SAINTS DAY

Today, we remember and honor the officially canonized Saints of the Catholic Church. We look to these great Saints of our faith for inspiration and guidance. We ask for their intercession. However, we also remember all who died and have lived exemplary and holy lives that have impacted our own lives and we cannot forget them. They will probably never be officially canonized, but they are the saints with a small "s" - but saints nevertheless. They have made positive contributions and sacrifices to make this world a better place for us. We also remember our living saints who continue to show all of us their very beautiful example of self-giving unconditional love. All of us are called to imitate them. HAPPY ALL SAINTS DAY!
