A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Third Sunday of Easter

Jesus invited the disciples to "Come and have breakfast." At this beach breakfast and the Last Supper Jesus teaches us meals should be more than eating. Family meals are opportunities to share prayer, listen to each other's stories, understand and support one another.

Reflection on the Third Sunday of Easter - Cycle C

May 1, 2022

We sympathize with the disciples. It had been a very challenging 3 years with Jesus - and as intensively traumatizing week. Fishing was the only way they could do with their eyes closed - to go back to - when things they were planning - ended in crisis. Fishing for them used to be work. But after 3 intense years with Jesus, fishing was now a picnic.

But they did not catch anything - until Jesus shows up again! Another miraculous catch of fish! Then Jesus takes Peter aside and reminds him what he originally signed up for. Peter used to fish for food - now - Jesus invites Peter and the Apostles to fish for people. Peter isn't in this anymore to fill people's belly. He is supposed to be casting his nets for the lost - the least - an the last!

Life can no longer be the same after Jesus - never again!

Catholic Reflection on St. Joseph, the Worker, May 1, 2022

Since May 1, 2022 is on a Sunday this year, the Sunday Mass always supercedes any other feast day other than what can be prescribed by the Catholic Church. This year, we will celebrate this Feast on Wednesday, May 4, 2022, here at Sts. Peter & Paul in Oak Hill.

The first of May is the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker, a liturgical feast established by Venerable Pope Pius XII in 1955 to honor the dignity of work and vocation. St. Joseph is the patron saint of all workers and those seeking gainful employment. During the pandemic, we have shown our appreciation in particular to the selflessness of frontline key workers who have put the needs of others before their own.

Discerning the task God has assigned for us to do is part of discerning our vocation, whether that be in religious life or as a lay faithful. Our work - in sacred. When we work, we share in God's creativity of bringing God's kingdom on earth. Jesus used many parables associated with working in the vineyard of the Lord. Jesus devoted most of the years of His life on earth to manual work at eh carpenter's bench, assisting St. Joseph -and in doing so - He made work Holy.

Catholic Social Teaching has always taught that work is dignified and an intrinsic good, and workers must always be respected and valued. The state has also the duty to protect the rights of all its people - and particularly workers and ensure there are good working conditions.

In his latest book, "Let Us Dream," Pope Francis encourages leaders and employers to ensure every worker receives a Universal Basic Income to allow a brighter future with fairer economy and an end to poverty.

St. Joseph The Worker - Pray for Us!
