May he rest in the peace of Christ.

* Reflection: Baptism of the Lord *

* Celebrate the day of your Baptism! *

* Today is the feast that stresses how Jesus, at the beginning of His public life, wanted to receive the “baptism of conversion” (Lk 3:3), administered by John in the Jordan. This act, by which He, though innocent showed His solidarity with sinners, became a moment of revelation. In fact, as He came out of the water, “immediately He saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending upon Him like a dove” (Mk 1:10). By this singular experience, Jesus is accredited as the Messiah awaited for centuries.

* In the Jordan, the voice of the Father resounds: “You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased” (Mk 1:11). These words shed light on the mystery of Jesus Christ: He is not only a “man of God” like the prophets and Saints, but the SON, the only Begotten One. (Jn 1:18)

* As the eternal Son, Jesus is consubstantial with the Father and the Holy Spirit and lives eternally - in the Trinitarian communion of the one God. In the incarnation, the Spirit of God completely fills His humanity.

* At His Baptism in the Jordan, the Spirit rests upon Him to initiate Him into the messianic ministry and to inaugurate the great “honor” of grace which will be completed by His Death and Resurrection. Indeed, Jesus Christ is the inexhaustible source of God’s spirit for every man and women who is open to His offer of salvation. (John Paul II, Angelus message, Vatican, January 12, 1997)

* Our Catholic Faith ~ Our Baptism
* (In honor of the Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord) *

* The Lord Himself affirms that Baptism is necessary for salvation (Jn. 3:5). He also commands His disciples to proclaim the Gospel to all the nations and to baptize them (Mt. 28:19 - 20). Baptism is necessary for salvation for those to whom the Gospel has been proclaimed and who have the possibility of asking for this Sacrament. The Church does not know of any means other than Baptism that ensures entry into eternal beatitude; this is why she takes care not to neglect the mission she has received from the Lord to see that all who can be baptized are “reborn of water and the Spirit.” God has bound salvation to the Sacrament of Baptism, but He, Himself, is not bound by His Sacraments. (CCC 1257)
