Special Emergency Collection Sept. 4-5 to Support Humanitarian Efforts in Haiti

Prompted by the massive earthquake and tropical storm that has devastated Haiti, Bishop Mark Brennan has joined Archbishop José H. Gomez, President of the USCCB, asking all faithful to consider donating to a special emergency collection to provide aid to support the Church and humanitarian needs arising from these and future disasters. This collection will take place at weekend Masses on Sept. 4-5th in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston.

The August earthquake killed more than 1,200 Haitian people and injured upwards of 5,700 others, leaving an overwhelming trail of destruction and rubble for a people who are hurting due to the socio-economic and political instability in their country, while still processing the assassination of their president in July.

The Holy Father urged the international community to show support and solidarity to help the country lighten the consequences of the tragedy. "As I raise my prayers to the Lord for the victims, I address a word of encouragement to the survivors, desiring that the international community will take a shared interest in them. May the solidarity of all alleviate the consequences of the tragedy," Pope Francis said, adding that the faithful should offer a Hail Mary together for Our Lady of Perpetual Help, patroness of Haiti to intercede for us.

Checks are to be made payable to your respective parish/mission and on the memo line indicate: Special Collection for disaster relief.

Some Wisdom Sayings:

- * (1) "There are two ways of waking up in the morning. One is to say, "Good morning, God"; and the other is to say - "Good God...morning!" (Bishop Sheen)
- * (2) "As all men are touched by God's love, so all are also touched by the desire of His intimacy. No one escapes this longing; we are all kings and queens in exile, miserable without the infinite. Those who reject the grace of God have a desire to avoid God, as those who accept it have a desire of God." (Bishop Sheen)

Catechism/Reflection

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Times

"Be doers of the Word and not hearers ONLY, deluding yourselves!"
(James 1: 18)

Social Justice:

"Catholics are called by God to (1) protect human life, (2) to protect human dignity, (3) to defend the poor and (4) to seek the common good.

This social mission of the Church belongs to all of us. It is an essential part of what it is to be a believer. (USCCB—"Everyday Christianity")

Jesus is always on the side of the poor and the powerless. He preaches among the poor and offers them hope. He calls upon us to respond to the needs of the poor. The Church at the Vatican Council II responded by calling all Catholics to be people of justice.

Catholics are called upon to influence the values of society. Society speaks of being practical and living in the real world. The real world is GOD'S WORLD! It's the creation of the Father. (Catechism 1928 - 1948)
