

School News: This Week - Mr. Keaveny
5th & 6th Grade Homeroom Teacher

Greetings to all:

Most people know I'm the soccer coach. Now I'm the gym and social studies teacher at Saint Peter and Paul. Why? Because what you are is God's gift to you what you make of yourself is your gift to God. I always knew our school was special. If you asked our students is why they will tell you because the Messiah is amongst us. Besides the academics our students learn to be polite yes sir, no sir, please, and thank you. Rule number one at our school, do unto others as you will have done to you, the golden rule.

Then there's what the coach has always said "faces change, expectations don't; nothing given, everything earned." I say Peter you say Paul and Father Moore would say PRAY FOR US. So now we all say the same!

First Sunday of Lent

The fast can be a sign that we live on more than bread.

On this first Sunday of Lent, Jesus enters the desert and invites us to do the same. During the next forty days, let us clear our minds and recall who our God is and whose we are. Beginning today, let us and our catechumens, our elect, prepare our hearts and souls for the great initiatory celebration at the Easter Vigil, recalling that it is God who created us, saved us, and made us whole through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Family Focus

Jesus "was led by the Spirit in the wilderness." What is the wilderness in your life to which the Holy Spirit is leading you this Lent? Perhaps there are uncharted areas in your marriage or family relationships. Spend this Lent in your "wilderness" with God work. Where is the Spirit leading you this Lent? - Bud Ozar
