

As you read this we just finished Catholic Schools week.

Monday due to snow we had to cancel our annual St Francis vs SSPP basketball game. The students and staff were extremely disappointed, but they enjoyed their day off.

Tuesday was Wacky Tacky day. Everyone including myself dressed in a wacky or tacky outfit and some cases both. We had our Geography Bee with Kasey Dolin being the finalist. The kids all got popsicles.

Wednesday was profession day. Everyone dressed as what they would like to be when they grow up. I dressed as a principal because it is exactly what I want to be. We had some professionals come speak to all of us on their jobs. The Rosieks came and spoke about being pharmacists. Mindy Osborne brought some animals and talked about being a vet. We had state troopers come and demonstrate how they use dogs in their work.

Thursday was sports day with everyone coming in their favorite team outfit. Then students went to pinheads to go bowling. When they came back they were treated to a delicious meal from McDonalds. The teachers and staff received a special lunch from PTO.

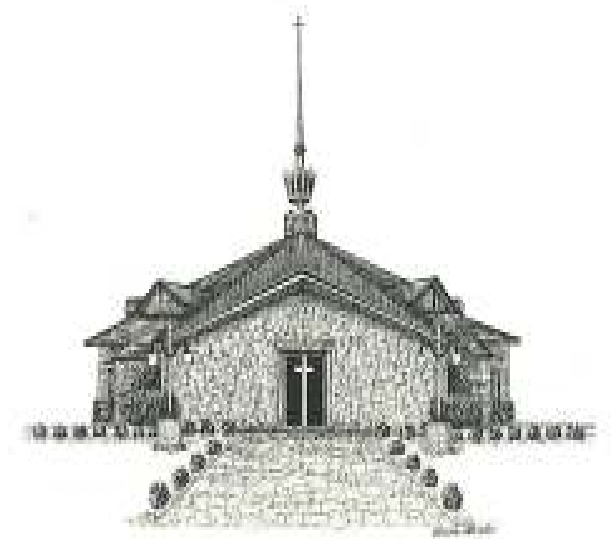

Friday was Patriotic day with everyone wearing Red, White and blue. Mass was at 8:30. We had an entire school Sock Hop at 1:15. Wow what a busy week. And we still found time for tests and learning.

Thanks for your prayers and support.!

The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston is committed to the protection of its children and young people. The Diocese complies with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People by maintaining an Office of Safe Environment.
