

School News..... From the desk of the 5th & 6th grade teacher,
Mr. Keaveny

Normally you would read about what the school has been doing for the past week; to bring you up to speed on that, we had a Valentine's Day Party. What's great about my students is they are not hard to please. Bring in pizzas, tell them we don't have class, let them exchange candy and treats with one another, and IT'S A PARTY. (For the record, we did have a veggie tray!)

At home you may have a hard time getting them to go out to play, but at school they have their buddies and that is a game changer. Their most requested activity after our academic endeavors are completed is EXTRA RECESS! They enjoy the game of GOTCHA, a basketball game where one player shoots and the player behind him/her tries to score first and eliminate the first player. If this is accomplished, hence, the second player "GOTCHA!"

Our Fish Fry starts Friday, March 3rd and is always enjoyed by everyone. Your continued support makes this fundraiser a success for the school. A MASSIVE THANK YOU goes out to Joe & Angie Re, Jane Evans, her CREW OF LADIES, and Mr. & Mrs. Chornobay for their continued efforts in making these Fridays a favorite thing about our school for the students and all who attend. Thank-you, Thank-you, and you know we could be here until next Sunday thanking everyone else, also, but a sincere and heartfelt THANK YOU to everyone involved. SEE YOU AT THE FRY!!!!
