

SCHOOL NEWS..... Mr. Keaveny (aka Coach)

The basketball season is in full swing. The boys lost a close on the Midland Trail, 56-10. The Girls fared a little better and won 35-27. Both teams work hard, but the numbers that have come out to play on the boy's side is going to make the season a struggle. A Coach once told me that we should always endeavor to persevere, which is what we will do. This coming week, the girls have two games on the schedule. They play Collins Middle on Wednesday and Greater Beckley of Friday; both games start at 7:00p.m. and will be played at the Memorial Building in Fayetteville. Come out and support your Crusaders!

Keeping with the sport theme, the subject of gym this past week was VOLLEYBALL. This is a tough sport to teach and not everyone is a fan. Our students, to my surprise, took to it like ducks to water. (This goes to show not every preconceived notion is correct, I didn't think they would like it.) Thanks to the great weather, we practiced our serves outdoors. They learned not to kick the ball and to pass the ball to the other team under the net. Most importantly, they learned to stay off the net. Speaking of the net, students would like to thank Reggi Dodd for the new volleyball posts that he put together so they could play. Reggi is also a Girls Basketball Coach. He says our students are awesome and I agree! Peter Paul, Pray for US!!

In today's gospel Jesus was publicly AFFIRMED by his Father: "You are my beloved son, with you I am very pleased." As parents we can become so focused on misbehaviors we overlook the good behaviors. Jesus needed AFFIRMATION and so do our children. Bud Ozar
