July 24, 2016, Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary

Jesus teaches us to pray and reminds us to persevere in prayer.

As we gather today for our weekly time of worship together, we will hear much about prayer in the readings that are proclaimed in our midst. Have we come prepared today? What has our prayer been like during the rest of the week? Perhaps today we can resolve to deepen our relationship with God through more frequent communication. Let us pray for the grace to do so.

Please inform the parish office of any change of address and new phone/cell numbers. The information is necessary to keep our records accurate.

Welcome Fr. Lyttle to our parish this weekend.

A Family Perspective.

Today's gospel guarantee if we "ask" we will "receive," perhaps not what we wanted but what our Heavenly Father knows is best for us, His children. All the love we have for our children, God has for us and more. As our children trust us, we must "Our Father."
