

The flowers in the Memorial Garden were purchased & planted by Kathryn Wickline and Nancy Sanger in memory of their parents & grandparents. Kathryn's parents were Mary & Wilbur Williams, grandparents were Kathryn & Tony Daily. Nancy's parents were Margaret & Baler Taraczkozy, grandparents were Elizabeth & William Taraczkozy and Helen and Andrew Sleboda.

We would also like to thank Mike Malay for his efforts in preparing the bed for planting.

Pet Food Drive

Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus

Please help the Fayette County Animal Shelter this month with stocking their shelves with much needed dog and cat food. As of June 2nd, the shelter did not have enough food for the animals housed there. You can make a difference!

"Jesus forgives the woman because he recognizes the faith the sinful woman had. On hearing that Jesus was at Simon's house, she ran to get perfume and overcame obstacles to see Jesus, because she had an unshakeable confidence that Jesus was able to forgive sins. Faith is the only condition that Jesus asks of someone to be saved; it is even the common denominator of His miracles/ Jesus' mercy redeems human misery not by merely brushing up against it or barely touching it, but by letting Himself be contaminated by it." Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization

June 5, 2016, Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Young man, I tell you, arise!"

We start our annual long stretch of summer Ordinary Time with a bang today, as our readings recount two stories of miraculous resuscitation. In this summer season of abundant life and growing things, our celebration today reminds us of the preciousness of life. Let us give thanks today for such a wonderful gift from God.

A Family Perspective

The widow in today's gospel was in deep trouble. Her husband and her only son were dead. In that male dominated society women owned nothing and were totally dependent on men for their livelihood. She would be reduced to begging. Restoring her son to life, Jesus also restored the woman to life. - Bud Ozar

First Communion picture proofs can be picked up in the church office on Monday, June 6th.

RCIA will begin anew on Wed., June 22, 2016, at 7:00 pm in the Fr. Moore room.
