June 19, 2016, Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Take up the cross."

Today's Gospel will help set the tone for the coming weeks and months. Having placed our faith in the Messiah, we are told that we must take up our cross every day and follow him. Strengthened by the power of Christ's death and resurrection, which we celebrated fully over the recent Triduum and Easter seasons, let us pray today to accept willingly the crosses of this life that we may know the fullness of life in the world to come.

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel teaches personal sacrifice is the key to successful parenting. If we try to "save your life you will lose it." The more we give of our self, the more rewarding is our relationship with our children. That's the secret: the more you give, the more you get.

- Bud Ozar

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2016

Thank you to all those that attended Vacation Bible School and volunteered their time to ensure a successful event. Over the course of the three day event, 33 children enjoyed Bible lessons, music and dance, crafts, games and snacks. This year's theme, Surf Shack, was so much fun to kick-off the summer. The kids enjoyed water themed Bible stories and learned about God's amazing love. The volunteers did an amazing job transforming classrooms to create fun scenes and activities to go along with their lessons. Megan and I want to take this time to mention everyone that helped us make this year's Vacation Bible School AMAZING.
