Race For Education

On Friday, May 13, 2016, Saints Peter and Paul Catholic School will be participating in its annual Race for Education. Students may walk or jog around a designated area as many times as they are able in one hour's time. We invite family and friends to join us in helping to raise funds in order to meet school needs that tuition does not cover such as STAR reading assessment software, consumable workbooks, and classroom enrichment materials. Each participant will raise funds by asking sponsors to contribute a tax deductible donation. Please help make this year's Race for Education a success. If you wish to make a separate donation to this event, please contact me in the school office at 304.465.5045. Thank you!

A Family Perspective

Mother's Day gives us the opportunity to celebrate the unconditional love of mothers. Whether living or dead, a mother's love always invites us to follow her example by loving generously and selflessly.

- Bud Ozar

May 8, 2016, Ascension of the Lord (7th Sunday of Easter)

"As he blessed them, he was taken up to heaven."

Today's celebration is a reminder that we live in the time between Christ's first coming and his second coming, between his ascension and the final day at the end of time. In this in-between time we have a job to do: we are to continue his mission on earth. As we gather today at God's invitation, may our prayer be to remain faithful and diligent disciples until the end.

The Ascension of Jesus into heaven then reveals to us this reality that is so comforting for our journey, (that) in Christ, true God and true man, our humanity was brought to God. If we entrust our lives to him, if we let ourselves be guided by him we are sure to be in safe hands, in the hands of our Savior, our advocate. Jesus is the only and eternal priest, who passed through death and the tomb, and rose again and ascended into Heaven. He is with God the Father, where he always intercedes in our favor. He is now in the lordship of God, present in all space and time, next to each of us. Entering into the glory of God requires daily fidelity to his will, even when it requires sacrifice, when at times it requires us to change our plans. He always forgives us, he is our advocate, he always defends us (and) we must never forget this.
