OF CABBAGES AND KINGS

As I write this I am five days away from bilateral knee surgery. So I'm going to treat you to some words of wisdom from people a lot more intelligent than I. May you have a most blessed Thanksgiving!

The first article is cribbed from a Thanksgiving letter that a friend, a former postmaster, sent last year. "Gratitude unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough, and more. It turns denial into acceptance, chaos to order, confusion to clarity. It can turn a meal into a feast, a house into a home, a stranger into a friend. Gratitude makes sense of our past, brings peace for today, and creates a vision for tomorrow." Melody Beattie
The next is Thomas Jefferson's Ten Rules which were reprinted in the Postmaster's Retired Newsletter in September, 2014.

Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today.
Never trouble another for what you can do yourself.
Never spend your money before you have earned it.
Never buy what you don't want because it is cheap.
Pride costs more than hunger, thirst and cold
We seldom repent of having eaten too little.
Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.
How much pain the evils have cost us that never happened.
Take things always by the smooth handle.
When angry, count to ten before you speak, if very angry, count to a hundred.

This last comes from a card I received in the mail from the Salesian Missionaries

A THANKSGIVING PRAYER

O, God, when I have food, help me to remember the hungry.
When I have work, help me to remember the jobless.
When I have a warm home, help me to remember the homeless.
When I am without pain, help me to remember those who suffer; and remembering, help me to destroy my complacency and bestir my compassion.

Make me concerned enough to help, by word and deed, those who cry out for what we take for granted. Samuel F. Pugh

"For I was hungry and you gave Me food. I was thirsty and you gave Me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed Me.....Matt. 25:35.

All Saints

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

On this day set aside to remember all the saints of the Lord, we recall that we who live on this earth today are but one part of a church that extends back through the centuries and forward to the end of time. Just as many of our churches have images of saints surrounding them, we are surrounded by the communion of saints, whose lives are a shining example of encouragement for us.

Family Focus

In a family children are taught to be respectful if they want to be respected, to share, if they want their fair share and to listen if they want to be heard. Family life rescues us from arrogance by teaching us to love others as we love ourselves. Bud Ozar

Today we support our family and friends who have served this nation with distinction. The Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services will provide the Gospel, the sacraments and other forms of spiritual support to the men and women of the United States Armed Forces wherever they serve, no matter the circumstances. Please prayerfully consider a generous contribution to the first-ever national Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services

On November 16th at 9am the Ladies Guild will be cleaning the church and anyone who would like to volunteer their time to help, please bring your cleaning supplies.

Gentle Reminder....If you are sick, please use discretion at the sign of peace and refrain from receiving from the cup.

Plans are being finalized for the International Dinner on November 7. We currently have a wide variety of main dishes with about 10 cultures represented. To complement our main dishes, we still need side dishes of vegetables/casseroles, salads and desserts.

It would be helpful to the servers, that you bring your dishes that have to be kept hot in half or full aluminum foil oven pans. If you do not have one, please stop by the office and pick one or two up from Trish.

If you are bringing soup or stew, please bring in a crockpot.

All food should be brought to the school cafeteria by 2:30p.m. on Saturday, November 7.
