

SCHOOL NEWS.....

by Shannon Dean, 3&4 / 7&8 Art &
3rd—6th Science Teacher

The school year is well underway, yet it hardly seems possible Thanksgiving break is upon us. SSPP is bustling with activity. Soccer season has come to a close with a good showing by our Crusaders. We thank Bob Workman and Jim Hayes for taking time to coach our players this season! The recent Spaghetti Drive-Thru pulled in over 100 tickets sold. We appreciate all those who volunteered their time and purchased tickets.

The pre-schoolers are, thankfully, back in their building with a new roof over their heads. Kindergarten is working hard and learning about authors and illustrators. 1st and 2nd Grade students are continuing to broaden their range of reading and writing skills. Mrs. Riner's 3rd & 4th Grade are publishing a class book that will be sent off to be printed November 22. Mrs. Payne's Science classes are studying fossils and ocean waves. Mr. Keaveny's Social Studies include the Progressive Era, Ancient Chinese Civilization, Civics and the Transcontinental Railroad. Mrs. Murphy's classes are diligently learning about Saints and getting ready for Advent. We are having fun in my science classes learning about plants, volume, forces and waves. The art department, of course, is always producing wonderful pieces of art. All the while, Mrs. Mucho-Seay, in addition to enhancing students learning in ELA, is preparing all the grades for this year's annual Christmas play.

We wish everyone a happy and safe Thanksgiving – God Bless! Please keep Mrs. Murphy in your prayers as she recovers from gall bladder surgery.
