The
Twenty-ninth Sunday
In Ordinary Time

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for many.

Our loving God has called us together today to hear and respond to the Good News that Jesus Christ came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. What today's celebration also makes clear is that if we are to follow Jesus, we too must learn to serve without expectation of reward. As we prepare for our celebration, let us pray that we will continue to be formed as true Christian servants.

 Today is World Mission Sunday! In Scripture, we read that St. Paul asked the Gentile Churches to take up a collection to support the Church in Jerusalem. Now we are asked to reach out and support the young churches throughout our world. Your prayers and generous gifts to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the collection today will help missionaries offer the poor of these areas practical help as they share the mercy of God. It will ensure the development of local dioceses, and support the work of priests, religious and lay leaders who serve those on the margins and in most need. Go out to the whole world through your gift in today's collection!

Family Focus

"Advise" books abound on marriage and parenting. Jesus tells us in today's gospel the real secret: satisfying relationships depend on how well we sacrifice our needs to serve others. It is not about "getting," it's about "giving" ourselves. If you feel like you are a servant to your children and spouse, then you are doing it right. Bud Ozar
