

School Notes....

Natasha Mucho-Seay, English/Language Arts

It's hard to believe, but we are already through the first grading period of the school year. Soccer is still in full swing, and our crew has been doing a phenomenal job. Go Crusaders!

Our middle school students had some fantastic field trip experiences this week. The fifth, sixth, and eighth grades took a field trip to Thurmond for the Thurmond History Festival. They had an exciting time learning about its history and participating in the activities that were offered. Seventh grade went to camp Magis this week. This was a wonderful religious retreat filled with outdoor activities.

Speaking of the outdoors, Three Rivers Avian will be bringing the outdoors to us. On October 3, they will be educating our students about wild bird conservation. To aid in their discussion, they will be bringing some of their birds. The students are looking forward to this wonderful presentation!

Thank you for your ongoing support both financially and spiritually. Continue to keep our school and school family in your prayers.

God bless!
